

I support media diversity

I am writing to you today to comment on Docket No. 02-277, The Biennial Review of the FCC's broadcast media ownership rules. In its goals to promote competition, diversity and localism in today's media market, I strongly believe that the FCC should retain all of the current media ownership rules now in question. These rules serve the public interest by limiting the market power of already huge companies in the broadcast industry.

Our "free press" is truly in trouble and has become boilerplate -- I have to get my news primarily from the internet because of the lack of fresh reporting. Do not allow media diversity to become even more watered down.

I appreciate your listening to me,

Rebecca Dare
